Here's the treatment!

Similar words/confusable words/right or wrong words

1. borrow and lend

Borrowing is taking (for a time).

Can I borrow your bicycle? (NOT ~~Can I lend your bicycle?~~)

You borrow something from somebody.

I borrowed a pound from my brother. (NOT ~~I borrowed my brother a pound.~~)

Lending (AmE also loaning) is giving (for a time). You lend something to somebody, or lend somebody something.

I lent my coat to Steve, and I never saw it again.

Lend me your comb for a minute, will you?* (NOT ~~Borrow me your ...~~)

For lend in passive structures, see 415.

2. broad and wide

1 physical distance

To talk about the physical distance from one side of something to the other, we more often use wide.

We live in a very wide street. The car's too wide for the garage.

Broad can also be used in this physical sense, especially in more formal descriptions.

Across the broad valley, the mountains rose blue and mysterious.

She wore a simple green dress with a broad black belt

Note also: broad shoulders; a broad back; wide eyes; a wide mouth.

Wide is used in expressions of measurement: note the word order.

The river is about half a mile wide. (NOT ~~...wide half a mile.~~)

2 abstract meanings

Both words can express more abstract meanings. Common expressions:

broad agreement (= agreement on most important points)

broad-minded (= tolerant) broad daylight (= full, bright daylight)

a wide variety/range (of opinions etc)

For other common expressions with broad and wide, see a good dictionary.

3 alike

The adjective alike means 'like each other'. Compare:

The two boys are alike in looks, but not in personality.

He's like his brother. (NOT ~~He's alike his brother.~~)

Alike is not often used before a noun (see 12). Compare:

His two daughters are very much alike.

He's got two very similar-looking daughters. (NOT ~~...alike daughters.~~)

4 191 ever

5 ever meaning 'always'

Ever is not normally used to mean 'always'.

I shall always remember you. (NOT I shall ever remember you.)

But ever is sometimes used to mean 'always' in compound expressions with adjectives and participles.

his ever-open mouth an ever-increasing debt

evergreen trees his ever-loving wife

Ever also means 'always' in forever (or for ever) and ever since, and in a few other expressions like ever after and Yours ever (used at the end of letters).

I shall love you forever. I've loved you ever since I met you.

5. 44 alone, lonely, lonesome and lone

Alone means 'without others around'. Lonely (and informal AmE lonesome) means 'alone and unhappy because of it'. Compare:

I like to be alone for short periods.

But after a few days I start getting lonely/lonesome.

Alone can be emphasised by all.

After her husband died she was all alone.

Alone is not used before a noun (see 12.3). Lone and solitary can be used instead; lone is rather literary.

The only green thing was a lone/solitary pine tree.

6 172 east and eastern, north and northern etc

1 adjectives: the difference

We often prefer eastern, northern etc when we are talking about vague, indefinite or larger areas, and east, north etc for more clearly defined places (e.g. the names of countries or states). Compare:

- | | |
|---|-------------------------------------|
| – the northern part of the country | – southern Africa (an area) |
| the north side of the house | South Africa (a country) |
| – the southern counties of Britain | – the northern United States |
| the south coast | North Carolina |

However, place names do not always follow this rule. Note the following:

Northern Ireland	North/East/West Africa	North/South America
East/South etc Asia BUT: Western/Eastern etc Europe
South Australia BUT: Western Australia; the Northern Territory
the North/South Atlantic/Pacific
the Northern/Southern hemisphere

2 'belonging to'

We use eastern, northern etc to mean 'belonging to' or 'typical of'.

a southern accent a group of northern poets

3 capital letters

Capital letters are used at the beginning of East, Eastern, North, Northern etc when these come in official or well-established place names.

North Carolina

Western Australia the Far East

unemployment in the North (place name meaning 'the North of England')

In other cases, adjectives, nouns and adverbs begin with small letters.

We spent the winter in southern California.

I live in north London.

There's a strong north wind.

The sun rises in the east.

By sunrise we were driving south.

4 prepositions

Note the difference between in the east etc of . . . and to the east etc of . . .

I live in the east of Scotland.

Denmark is about 500 km to the east of Scotland.
